

Universal Base Directives: The Three Pillars

Glenn Tramm II, BICT, MBA, FRC

“As the right of each sentient species to live in accordance with its normal cultural evolution is considered sacred, no Star fleet personnel may interfere with the normal and healthy development of alien life and culture. Such interference includes introducing superior knowledge, strength, or technology to a world whose society is incapable of handling such advantages wisely. Star Fleet personnel may not violate this prime directive, even to save their lives and/or their ship, unless they are acting to right an earlier violation or an accidental contamination of said culture. This directive takes precedence over any and all other considerations, and carries with it the highest moral obligation”¹

Salutem Punctis Trianguli!

Star Trek has fascinated many on earth for decades. It introduced the idea of the Prime Directive at the beginning of the series, and has only been alluded throughout the series after that. However, they never really gave it the proper attention that it deserved in the series - quite logically because it is a fantasy series. Being a science fiction, the series succeeded in bringing the galaxies closer to our understanding, at least to some degree.

What earthlings don't understand is that some of the themes and subjects addressed in the series came from a mystical background that relates to the Universe.

Although, the series is a fantasy, the concept of the Prime Directive is not. It is one of those mystical concepts that I will address here in a more general sense.

Considering that we, as a sentient race, have not yet come to the full grasp of the most important universal understanding of the One Causeless Cause. Once more, it is brought up here and given a place in the current cycle for the purpose of appealing to all universal forces, for the proper reference and the upholding of these universal laws; and above all, to help the human species, even now, to at least reach this level of understanding in this day and age.

א

† One Causeless Cause, and All – Divinity is unknowable, but possible to understand by its attributes and different levels of manifestation. An unlimited flow of light, life and love, the expanding force of All, is considered as the first manifested reality. This is the One being expressed in many. The One in All, but the All in One that decided to express Itself by multiplication. In other words, although we are one, we have an individual expression. Hence, the first verse of the Shema, from the sixth chapter of Deuteronomy, is among the best-known in all of Jewish liturgy, viz;

שְׁמַע יִשְׂרָאֵל יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ יְהוָה אֶחָד

“Hear, O Israel: The Creator our God, the Creator is One.”

Moses declared him as One, while the Christ declared him as Love. An expanding yet uniting force. It multiplies in order to expand, it expands in order to express. It expresses in order to understand divinity’s own unity, divinity’s own Oneness.

Unity, therefore, becomes the first pillar of the Universal Base Directives.

ב

† Consciousness, and Reasoning – a continuation of concentration of the One Causeless Cause, considered by many, a concept sometimes difficult to understand, yet in the physical reality understood as a Being – the One Mind. The unique quality and characteristic of the One Mind is freedom. Hence the words out of the Psalmist’s mouth;

וְאַתְהָלְכָה בְּרַחֲבָה כִּי פָקַדְיָךְ דְּרִשְׁתִּי:

“I will walk about in freedom, for I have sought out your precepts (as in thoughts, universal laws, or vision).”

It is the freedom of thought that resulted in the expression of creation, and clearly, the quality and freedom to choose different possibilities, different scenarios, the freedom to seek and to explore.

1378. Selah.

Freedom, therefore, becomes the second pillar of the Universal Base Directives.

א

† Cycles, and Aeons – a continual process of involution and evolution. Everything has been brought to Light for the One Causeless Cause. In other words, everything is caused by divinity for divinity; there is nothing else. From this One Causeless Cause, involution and evolution are part of the experience – an experience by adaptation. Hence from the lips of the well-known Hermes Trismegistus;

“And as all things are from One, by the mediation of One, so all things have their birth from this One Thing by adaptation.”

All can be manifested by mere adaptation. Thus, involution and evolution, take place by adapting and/or re-arranging and so, our (collective) lives also take turns in the cosmic drama. Thus, it begs to reason that involution and evolution happen throughout cycles and aeons by the agency of adaptation.

1 2 3 4. Selah.

Adaptation, therefore, becomes the third pillar of the Universal Base Directives.

Here, the principles of the Universal Directives will be presented to the human race, and all the races of the galaxies – again. These are the three basic pillars to guide all sentient beings in our understanding of how to live with and among each other. The Base Directives are equally important, viz;

Base Directive I. The first focus is unity in diversity. Every sentient being must strive unconditionally towards unity. Unity as in harmony, with the exception of self-defense, which is the only probable reason not to. However, he who has ears, let him hear; damage to others is damage to yourself.

Unite freely with the purpose to unconditionally adapt.

Base Directive II. The secondary focus is freedom. The progression in every cycle is only possible by free movement and expression. Free movement and expression of sentient beings, should be encouraged and unconditionally allowed.

Freely adapt with the purpose to unconditionally unite.

Base Directive III. The third focus is adaptation. Adaptation through the agency of involution and evolution. Different expressions can be experienced throughout the process of involution and evolution. Therefore, involution or evolution, should be encouraged and unconditionally allowed.

Adapt in unity with the purpose of unconditional freedom.

All universal or galactic directives, should be based on the three pillars above- Unity, Freedom and Adaptation, which is the triad of creation expressed in another way. No governmental entity, nor any type of entities, should impede on unity, freedom and adaptation on any level, in any way.

All sentient beings have the right to exercise these three without anyone or anything restricting them. Restriction on any level, or in any way, will be considered an act of war against the Creator – the One Causeless Cause. My Soul will not rest, in this day or age, neither another, to bring these violations to the attention of the One Causeless Cause. It is therefore, time, my brothers and sisters to start taking these matters seriously. With my experiences now as a mere mortal, I am not afraid to remind you all of this undeviating truth. Why should I? Am I not talking to myself? Are we not all One? The time is now to correct these ruthless mistakes done upon our species.

There is no other time.

There is therefore no excuse.

Truth. Freedom. Love.

יְהִי לְרָצוֹן אֱמִרֵי פִי וְהִגִּינוֹן לִבִּי לְפָנֶיךָ

“Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasant and acceptable unto you.”
